

Dalit Transformation Project

Through a partnership with OM India and the Dalit Freedom Network, this project offers community development, medical services and education for the Dalits of India. The Dalits are the lowest in the Indian caste system and therefore have historically been considered “untouchable”. With highly educated, healthy, and motivated youth, the Dalits are beginning to see hope in breaking free from their long cycle of oppression.

Job Title: Social Work Specialist

Project Location: Hyderabad, India

Length of Initial Assignment: Two years

Essential Job Functions:

- Encourage and assist the Indian team members in building and forming the areas of anti-human trafficking, economic development and education

Required Skills / Abilities:

- Possess a servant heart and committed attitude
- Ability to be a learner not an expert and value administrative skills
- Willingness to lay aside Western time orientation

Required Language or Training for Project Location:

- Continual forward effort in learning India culture, Hindi or other Indian language

Educational Requirements:

- Bachelor’s degree in Social Work or equivalent
- Master’s degree preferred

Required Professional Experience:

- 2 years background in social work in public setting
- Experience in anti-human trafficking, dignity-based social work, and/or school-based counseling

Special Requirements for Country or Project Eligibility:

- Ability to tolerate extreme heat and spicy foods
- Vibrant spiritual life
- Lives a healthy lifestyle to include social, intellectual, physical and spiritual areas.
- Ability to lift and carry 50 pounds up 2 flights of stairs

Compensation: Donor Development

