

Dalit Education Center

Through a partnership with OM India and the Dalit Freedom Network, this project offers community development and education for the Dalits of India. The Dalits are the lowest in the Indian caste system and therefore have historically been considered “untouchable”. Our Dalit Partnership project serves individuals who have often had little or no help. With highly educated, healthy, and motivated youth, the Dalits are beginning to see hope in breaking free from their long cycle of oppression.
