

Tahaddi Project

The Tahaddi project (a locally registered NGO) that works in a Beirut shanty town is in need of a physical therapist in a basic clinical setting. The vision of this project is to address the medical needs of the poorest of the poor in this marginalized town south of Beirut.

Job Title: Physical Therapist

Project Location: Beirut, Lebanon

Length of Initial Assignment: Three years (Two if have language fluency)

Essential Job Functions:

- Coordination, education and follow-up between patient/patient families and clinic, medical and social services

Required Skills / Abilities:

- Strong commitment to serving the poorest of the poor
- Ability to work in adverse clinical conditions

Required Language or Training for Project Location:

- Context fluency in Arabic and/or French
- Language study options available

Educational Requirements:

- Physical Therapy Degree

Required Professional Experience:

- Specialist in family physical therapy preferred
- Background with humanitarian NGOs

Special Requirements for Country or Project Eligibility:

- Willingness to work in politically unstable environment
- Patience and innovation for problem solving
- Vibrant spiritual life
- Lives a healthy lifestyle to include social, intellectual, physical and spiritual areas
- Ability to lift and carry 50 pounds up 2 flights of stairs

Compensation: Donor Development

